MOTION TO DISMISS CASE

COMES NOW Mary Ida Townson, United States Trustee for Region 21, in furtherance of the administrative responsibilities imposed by 28 U.S.C. § 586(a), and respectfully moves this Court to enter an order dismissing the above-captioned Chapter 11 case for cause pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 1112(b). In support of this motion, the United States Trustee shows the Court as follows:

Summary of Relief Requested

1.

Bankruptcy Code section 1112(b)(1) provides that:

... on request of a party in interest, and after notice and a hearing, the court shall convert a case under this chapter to a case under chapter 7 or dismiss a case under this chapter, whichever is in the best interests of creditors and the estate, for cause, unless the court determines that the appointment under section 1104(a) of a trustee or an examiner is in the best interests of creditors and the estate.

Bankruptcy Code section 1112 provides that, except as provided in section 1104(a), if the party moving for dismissal establishes cause, absent unusual circumstances specifically identified by the Court that establish that the requested dismissal or conversion is not in the best interests of creditors and the estate, the Court shall dismiss or convert the case to chapter 7, whichever is in the best interest of creditors and the estate. 11 U.S.C. § 1112(b)(1).<sup>1</sup>

3.

Cause exists for the Court to dismiss this case because the debtor failed to timely file and transmit required reports and failed to pay quarterly fees to the United States Trustee.

<sup>1</sup> “Although section 1112 does not define the phrase ‘unusual circumstances,’ it clearly contemplates conditions that are not common in most chapter 11 cases. Although each chapter 11 case is to some extent unique, and unusual circumstances may exist in any particular case regardless of its size or complexity, the import of section 1112(b) is that, if cause exists, the case should be converted or dismissed unless unusual facts or circumstances demonstrate that the purposes of chapter 11 would be better served by maintaining the case as a chapter 11 proceeding.” In re Kent, 2008 WL 5047799 at *6 (Bankr. N.D. Arizona), In re Blixseth, 2009 WL 1525994 (Bankr. D. Montana).

Statement of Facts

The debtor commenced this case on January 14, 2025, by filing a petition for relief under chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code.

5.

Bankruptcy Code section 704(a)(8) requires the debtor file with the Court and the United States Trustee periodic reports and summaries of the operation of its business, including a statement of receipts and disbursements, and such other information as the United States Trustee or the Court requires.

6.

Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 2015(a) directs chapter 11 debtors-in-possession to file the reports and summaries required by section 704(a)(8).

7.

The United States Trustee is responsible for ensuring all reports, schedules, and fees required to be filed and paid by a debtor are properly and timely addressed, monitoring the progress of the case, and taking the necessary action to prevent undue delay in such progress. 28 U.S.C. § 586 (a)(3)(D) and (G).

8.

Accordingly, the United States Trustee for Region 21 has established Operating Guidelines and Reporting Requirements for Debtors in Possession and Trustees (“the Guidelines”). The Guidelines explicitly state that compliance is essential and that the debtor’s failure to comply may result in the United States Trustee filing a motion to dismiss or convert the case, a motion for appointment of a chapter 11 trustee or an examiner, or a motion for sanctions.

The United States Trustee’s staff reviewed the Guidelines with the debtor and the debtor’s attorney.

10.

The debtor has not filed reports for the months of February 2025 and March 2025. By the date of the hearing on this matter, the April 2025 report will also be due.

11.

28 U.S.C. §1930(a)(6) prescribes quarterly fees that are to be paid by chapter 11 debtors to the United States Trustee Program. In essence, quarterly fees accrue throughout the pendency of a chapter 11 reorganization case (i.e., until the case is closed, dismissed, or converted to another chapter) and are payable on a quarterly basis, 30 days following the end of each calendar quarter. “The amount of the quarterly fee [is] calculated according to a graduated scale based on the total sum of disbursements as specified in § 1930(a)(6). ‘Disbursements’ include all pre- and post-confirmation payments made by or on behalf of the debtor, including routine operating expenses.” See, e.g., Tighe v. Celebrity Home (In re Celebrity Home Entertainment, Inc.), 210 F.3d 995 (9th Cir. April 21, 2000).

12.

The United States Trustee conducted the initial debtor interview on January 29, 2025. During the initial debtor interview, the United States Trustee's representative reviewed the Guidelines with the debtor's attorney and representative.

13.

The United States Trustee began the section 341 meeting of creditors on February 14, 2025. During the meeting of creditors, counsel for the United States Trustee reminded the debtor's representative about the debtor's duty to pay quarterly fees.

14.

The debtor has not paid quarterly fees for the 1st quarter, 2025. The United States Trustee's records show the debtor owes an estimated $12,022.00 for outstanding quarterly fees. The quarterly fee was due no later than one month following the end of the calendar quarter.

15.

"Section 1112(b)(4) states, 'the term "cause" includes--' and then lists sixteen examples of "cause." The list is not exhaustive, and a case may be dismissed for other causes, such as bad faith or if the petition does not serve a bankruptcy purpose." In re Americert, Inc., 360 B.R. 398, 401 (Bankr. D. N.H. 2007). "Fundamental bankruptcy policy continues to support the proposition that the inability to propose a feasible reorganization or liquidation plan provides 'cause' for dismissal or conversion of a chapter

11 case on request of an interested party. In re DCNC North Carolina I, LLC, 407 B.R. 651, 666 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 2009). “Chapter 11 debtors cannot ‘have their cake and eat it too’; the extraordinary relief provided by the bankruptcy laws comes with a price. That ‘price’ includes the responsibility to pursue an open and expeditious reorganization.” In re Milford Connecticut Assoc., L.P., 389 B.R. 303, 309 (BK. Conn. 2008).

Debtor’s Failure to File Reports Or Pay Quarterly Fees is Cause for Dismissal of the Case

16.

The debtor’s unexcused failure to timely file the monthly reports is cause for dismissal of the case pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §1112(b)(4)(F). The debtor’s failure to timely pay quarterly fees is cause for dismissal of the case pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §1112(b)(4)(K).

WHEREFORE the United States Trustee requests the Court dismiss this case.
